Local Fundraising is a course in which you learn how to mobilise resources within your own community through various sources e.g. local businesses, middle class donors, local companies and public authorities and many more.

During the course you will develop a fundraising plan for your own organisation and practice the communication skills you require to implement the plan.

A coach will be allocated to your organisation to advise and monitor implementation of your Local Fundraising plan.

The Local Fundraising course is suitable for small and medium-sized social organisations in South-Africa.

Licensed local trainers from Rhiza Babuyile conduct the course.
